

CHAPTER 1: ANGEL from the Syntopicon

OUTLINE OF TOPICS

	MOB
1. Inferior deities or demi-gods in polytheistic religion	10
2. The philosophical consideration of pure intelligences, spiritual substances, supra- human persons	n
2a. The celestial motors or secondary prime movers: the intelligences attached to the celestial bodies
2b. Our knowledge of immaterial beings	12
3. The conception of angels in Judaeo-Christian doctrine
3a. The first creatures of God: their place in the order of creation
3b. The angelic nature
3c. The aeviternity and incorruptibility of angels	13
3d. The angelic intellect and angelic knowledge
3e. The angelic will and angelic love
3f. Angelic action: its characteristics in general
3g. The angelic hierarchy: the inequality, order, and number of the angels and their relation to one another
4. Comparison of angels with men and with disembodied souls: their relation to the blessed in the heavenly choir	14
5. The distinction and comparison of the good and the bad angels
5a. The origin of the division between angels and demons: the sin of Lucifer or Satan	15
5b. The society of the demons: the rule of Satan over the powers of darkness
6. The role of the angels in the government of the universe
6a. The ministry of the good angels in the affairs of men: guardianship
6b. The intervention of the demons in the affairs of men: temptation, possession	16
7. God and Satan	17
7a. Warfare between the powers of light and darkness: their struggle for dominion over man
7b. Lucifer in the service of God
8. Criticism and satire with respect to the belief in angels and demons	