

CHAPTER 11:
CITIZEN

225

OUTLINE OF TOPICS

	PAOB
1. The individual in relation to the state	226
2. The conception of citizenship	227
2a. The status or office of citizenship in relation to the principle of constitutional government
2b. The distinction between citizen and subject: the distinction between the subjects of a constitutional monarchy and of a despotism	228
2c. The character and extent of citizenship under different types of constitutions
3. The qualifications for citizenship: extent of suffrage
4. The rights, duties, privileges, and immunities of citizenship
5. The virtues of the citizen and the virtues of the good man	229
6. Education for citizenship	230
7. Political citizenship and membership in the city of God
8. The idea of world citizenship: the political brotherhood of man	331
9. Historical episodes and stages in the struggle for citizenship	