

OUTLINE OF TOPICS

	PAGES
1. The concept of duty or obligation: its moral significance	366
2. Comparison of the ethics of duty with the ethics of happiness, pleasure, or utility
3. The divisions of duty: internal and external duty; the realms of ethics and jurisprudence	367
4. The sense of duty
4a. The moral and social development of conscience: its dictates
4b. The emotional development of conscience: its morbid manifestations	368
5. The derivation of duty from divine, natural, and civil law, and from the categorical imperative of reason
6. Conflicts between duties of diverse origins	369
7. The relation of duty to justice and to rights: oaths and promises
8. The tension between duty and instinct, desire, or love	370
9. The duties of command and obedience in family life	371
10. Political obligation: cares, functions, loyalties
11. Duty to God: piety and worship	373