

OUTLINE OF TOPICS

	PAGE
1. The relation of honor and fame: praise and reputation	736
2. Honor and fame in the life of the individual	737
2 a. The sense of honor and of shame: loyalty to the good
2 b. Honor as an object of desire and as a factor in virtue and happiness
2 c. Honor as due self-esteem: magnanimity or proper pride	739
id. Honor or fame as a mode of immortality
2 e. Honor as the pledge of friendship: the codes of honor among social equals	740
3. The social realization of honor and fame
33. The reaction of the community to its good or great men
lb. The conditions of honor or fame and the causes of dishonor or infamy	741
4. Honor in the political community and in government	742
40. Honor as a principle in the organization of the state: timocracy and monarchy
j\b. The scale of honor in the organization of the state: the just distribution of honors	743
4«\ Honor as a political technique: the uses of praise, prestige, public opinion
5. Honor, fame, and the heroic	744
5 a. Honor as a motivation of heroism
$b. Hero-worship: the exaltation of leaders
5 c. The occasions of heroism in war and peace	745
5<£ The estimation of the role of the hero in history
6. The idea of glory: its distinction from honor and fame	746
da. The glory of God: the signs and the praise of the divine glory
6 b. The reflected glory of the angels and saints	