

OUTLINE OF TOPICS

	PAGE
1. The nature of sin: violation of divine law; disorder in man's relation to God	761
2. The kinds and degrees of sin	762
2a. The distinction between original and actual sin
2b. The distinction between spiritual and carnal sin
2c. The distinction between mortal and venial sin
(1) The classification and order of mortal sins
(2) The classification and order of venial sins
3. The doctrine of original sin	763
3a. The condition of Adam before sin: his supernatural state of grace; his preternatural gifts
3b. The sin of Adam
3c. The nature of fallen man in consequence of Adam's sin	764
3d. The need for a mediator between God and man to atone for original sin
3e. The remission of sin: baptism; the state of the unbaptized	765
4. Actual or personal sin
4a. The relation of original sin to actual sin
4b. The causes and occasions of actual sin
4c. Pride as the principle of sin: the tragic fault oihybris	766
4d. The consequences of actual sin: the loss of charity and grace
4e. The prevention and purging of sin: purification by sacrifice; the sacrament of penance; contrition, confession, and absolution
5. The remorse of conscience and feelings of guilt: the psychogenesis and pathological expression of the sense of sin	767
6. Guilt and the punishment of sin	768
6a. Man's freedom in relation to responsibility and guilt for sin: divine predestination or election
6b. Collective responsibility for sin: the sins of the fathers	769
6c. The temporal punishment of sin: divine scourges
6d. The eternal punishment of sin: the everlasting perdition of the unrepentant in Hell	770
6e. The purifying punishments of Purgatory	771
7. Grace and good works in relation to salvation from sin	