

OUTLINE OF TOPICS

	PAOB
1. The nature of temperance	874
1a. The relation of temperance to virtue generally, and to the virtues of courage and justice
1b. The relation of temperance to knowledge and prudence: the determination of the mean of temperance	875
1c. Temperance and continence: the counterfeits of temperance
2. The varieties of intemperance: the related vices of sensuality, abstemiousness, cruelty, curiosity, inordinate desire	876
3. Temperance in relation to duty or happiness	877
4. The cultivation of temperance: the training of a temperate character
5. The social aspects of temperance	878
5a. The temperance of rulers and citizens: intemperate conduct as inimical to the common good
5b. The temperance of a people: luxurious indulgences; the intemperance of the mob
5c. Laws concerning temperance: the extent to which the sphere of temperance can be regulated by law	879
6. The extremes of temperance and intemperance
6a. Asceticism: heroic temperance
6b. The dionysiac spirit: the cult of pleasure	880