

WISDOM

OUTLINE OF TOPICS

	PAGE
1. The nature, origins, and kinds of wisdom	m 0
1a. Diverse conceptions of natural wisdom: the supreme form of human knowledge
1b. The distinction between speculative and practical wisdom, or between philosophical and political wisdom	mi
1c. Theological and mystical wisdom: the supernatural wisdom of faith and vision; the gift of wisdom
1d. The wisdom of God: the defect of human wisdom compared with divine wisdom; the folly or vanity of worldly wisdom
2. Wisdom, virtue, and happiness	1112
2a. Wisdom as an intellectual virtue: its relation to other intellectual virtues, especially science and understanding; the vice or sin of folly
2b. Wisdom and man's knowledge of good and evil: the relation of wisdom to the moral virtues	1113
2c. Wisdom as a good: its role in the happy life; the place of the wise man in society	1114
3. The love of wisdom and the steps to wisdom: the sophist, the philosopher, and the wise man	n 15
4. The praise of folly: the wisdom of fools and innocents	1116